School: Takayama Technical High School

Class: Team-Teaching

ALT: Nancy Ku

Grade: High School 2nd Year (Low-Level)

JTE: Saito, Tanomoto, Itaya

(Textbook: VISTA English Series I, Lesson 10 (but not used in ALT classes))

Objective: reinforce relative pronouns: who, that and which (previously taught by JTE in Lesson 10 class)

ACTIVITY	TIME	JTE and ALT	Students	Notes
Grammar Point Refresher	5	JTE quickly re-explains who, that and which with sentence examples		e.g. 2E is the class that is the best! e.g. Hiro is the boy who break dances.
“Find Someone Who” Speaking Activity (Who)	20	First, explain activity, and quickly go over meaning of sentences on worksheet.	Get up and ask classmates questions from worksheet. Write in classmates’ (and teachers’) names.  (see worksheet below)	Worksheet has 8 statements on it, all using who . Prizes for students who have the most names.
“Pirates!” Picture Drawing ( who, that, which )	25	ALT: Draw initial picture on board. Then read aloud and write sentences on the board one-by-one. Flail arms and make sound effects. ALT and JTE: Walk around and help students.	Draw! Yay! Draw the initial picture given by ALT on own paper. Then, add to picture as described by the ALT.  (see story sentences below)	Give the sentences one-at-a-time! Ask some students to draw their picture on the board at the end.
